

NEWSLETTER

June | 2019

School of Architecture Planning and Preservation
Maryland's Built Environment School

HAND Annual Meeting & Housing Expo

Tanya Bansal '14 , Catherine Ryckman '18,
Nyasha Mandima '19 and Maria Day-Marshall

On June 11, 2019, staff, faculty, students and alumni attended HAND's Annual Meeting & Housing Expo. Themed "Holding Ourselves Accountable: Bold Housing Solutions for Every Sector & Every Jurisdiction", this year's conference was a powerful experience for all in attendance. The conference kicked off with the plenary session, The Elected Perspective: Bold Housing Solutions Across The Capital Region. The Awards Luncheon capped the conference, featuring an interactive Fireside Chat. Additional highlights from the luncheon included an exciting performance by the all-female Afro-Brazilian percussion band Batalá Washington, an inspiring address from the Children's Art Contest Grand Prize Winner and the presentation of the Housing Achievement Awards, for which Director Maria Day-Marshall served as a judge.

Student & Alumni Happy Hour

Malcolm Haith '09, Garrett Dickerson, Nate Robbins '18,
Nick Shank '19, Richard Adjou '19, Gerard Boulin, Carrie Chard and Maria Day-Marshall

On June 20th, MRED alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends came together at the Hawthorne Rooftop & Tavern in Washington DC for happy

First Tuesday Luncheon

On June 4th, a group of industry experts, students, alumni and friends were hosted for lunch at the Villages of Savannah in Brandywine, MD. In addition to a delicious lunch, attendees listened to a presentation by Stephen Paul '77, Executive Vice President, at Mid-Atlantic Builders. The program highlighted the new community and its approach to multi-generational housing. Building a multi-generational home plan can minimize friction between family members, as well as generate strong bonds between them, and promote financial well-being. In most cases, they include hour and networking. A great time was had by all. Thank you to everyone who came out. Hope to see you in September in College Park!

Maria Day-Marshall, Nick Shank '19, Michelle Hodge, Mircea Enache, Carrie Chard, Timur Ryspekov '14, Vania Andini '19 and Nate Robbins '18, an in-law suite or separate living quarters within the main home. In addition to the presentation, attendees got to tour 4 model homes that featured unique interior designs.

Look for an announcement and invitation for our next luncheon. These events are designed for students, friends and alumni of UMD's Colvin Institute and are limited to 20 - 25 attendees. If you would like to host a First Tuesday, please contact Carrie Chard at cchard@umd.edu.

---

Save-the-Date: Colvin Fall Lecture Series

---

Mark your calendar for the Colvin Institute's Fall Lecture Series on October 9! SiteWorks' President, Nick Egelanian, will present publicly available data points to argue that Amazon isn't killing retail, and it's also not anywhere close to becoming a dominant player in the grocery industry.

